How FOCUS works: Our online career assessments will create profiles of your interests, skills, values, personality, educational preferences and leisure activities

Click on the link and then scroll down to the Log-In instructions

FOCUS will help you broaden your career horizons and guide you through mapping out a personalized career plan. Our approach is based on established career counseling principles and is currently being used in over 1000+ schools, colleges, universities, government agencies, and career counseling centers nationwide.

How FOCUS works:

Our online career assessments will create profiles of your interests, skills, values, personality, educational preferences and leisure activities. You then investigate occupations matching your profiles. For each occupation you will learn about the duties, education required, skills needed, specific working conditions, required training, job outlook, current and expected earnings, and much more!

There is no assessment that will tell you what you should do as a career, but the compiled report will display careers that most closely match your answers to the assessments. The results report will give you the occupation name, national average salary, and which majors at Springfield College might be a good choice. There are frequently several paths to a given career, you can click on the occupation name to get more information about the career. If it is an occupation that might interest you, you can click on the option to save it. You can compare different occupations.
